Landour Bakehouse is a bakery and patisserie housed in an old fashioned Bothy, situated across from the Cluanie Inn, on the road to Skye.

We serve a delicious array of unique handmade cakes, pastries and sandwiches, some of which are from recipes dating back to the late 1890's, in a traditional charming mountain style cafe. One can stop by for a quick bite or enjoy stuffed croissants, scones, muffins, puddings and other tasty goodies while gazing at dramatic views of the Highland wilderness.
